STAR-FM

A very special day will be held at Woy Woy South tomorrow morning when STAR-FM will broadcast live from our school from 6.00am to 9.00am. We will receive a cheque from Newcastle Permanent Building society for welcoming them to the school and this will be used to fund a “free breakfast” for those who attend from 7.00am. Mr Collins has tapped into his many connections and organised for the “State of Origin” shield to be on display with photo opportunities as well, with Ricky Walford (former St George great), Chris Holstein (our local state member) and maybe more! It will be a huge day for WWS School and families.

Year 6 mini Fete

Well done to Year 6, their teachers and their families for a wonderful mini fete yesterday which raised money to cover the cost of their farewell held in December. The students were well organised in each of their activities and treated the younger students with respect as they interacted with them. An excellent day for all which will now cover the cost of the Year 6 Farewell.

Deadly Awards

This afternoon, commencing with a barbecue at 4.30pm and the main ceremony at 5.30, the combined schools in the Brisbane Water Learning Community will combine with Koora AECG to present the 2014 Deadly Awards to Aboriginal students for achievements this year. The Gleeson Family

Many thanks to the Gleeson family (Jaz 5/6L and Jonty 3W) for their generous donation of plants for our gardens. Thank you for thinking of us.

P&C Meeting

At our P&C meeting last Friday the need for volunteers to help out on Wipeout day was a priority for discussion. The organisers are very keen to hear from anyone who can give some time on the day to make sure this event, the major fundraiser for the year, is successful. Please be sure to find your child’s sponsorship card with this newsletter. Children are encouraged to collect as many sponsors (family members, neighbours and other people known to them) as possible but there is a minimum amount of $5 this year to allow them to join in the fun. All monies are brought in before the day.

Christmas is just around the corner and here is a fantastic opportunity to get some great summer reading as stocking fillers. Please look for the add in this newsletter for the details.

Overdue Books:
All books have to come home (the Library) for the holidays. Overdue books should be sent to school asap. Students are getting daily reminders. Kindly help them locate these wayward books, so others can share in the fun next year.
